CHAPTER 1

GENERAL AND POLITICAL.

1. Situation:- The Tonk State lies partly in Rajputana and partly in Central India.

Area:- The State covers an aggregate area of 16,33,998 acres of land. The country though hilly and wooded comprises of flat and low lands and in some places terraces of high tableland jut out of the land.

Rainfall and climate:- The average rainfall of the year is 26 inches and the climate is hot and dry. The withholding of rains during the year led to scarcity of foodgrains and fodder in Tonk and Aligarh Parganas, and the situation was met with by importing foodgrains from the outlying Parganas of the State and the British territory.

Population:- The population of the State is 3,02,922 souls according to the census of 1911.

Revenue and Tribute:- The gross receipts of the State for the year under review were Rs. 20,77,094 against Rs. 21,62,603 for the previous year. The State pays no tribute to the British Government or to any other Native States in India.

PROTECTION.

Legislation.

1. The laws and regulations in force in the State are shown in Appendix II and are generally the same as are in force in the British Provinces. In some cases, however, they are modified to suit the local requirements.

Criminal Tribes Rules were introduced in the State during the year under report.

Military Force.

2. The total number of the State Army and its cost is given in detail in Appendix III.

The State Army has undergone no change in its strength. The aggregate number was 1,772 as shown last year. The cost of its upkeep was slightly increased on account of an annual increment of 405/3/9 in the pay of the officials and in other expenses. The total expenditure under this head was Rs 20,0,026 during the year against Rs 1,99,621 for the last year.

The Hussaini Battalion had 773 muzzle loading guns of obsolete patterns and 21 swords. The Cavalry and infantry bear their own arms. The Military force is employed mainly on watch and ward duties in the State, and has been trained and drilled by a Government pensioned military officer for the last 6 or 7 years.

Sahibzada Abdul Munim Khan, General of the State Army, controlled the Military Force satisfactorily.

The State Band was trained satisfactorily by Mr. Franco Bandmaster.

Police.

3. The following report has been submitted by the Inspector General of Police Tonk State:-

Administration of Force.

(1) This department was administered throughout the year by Mr. S.T. Hollins late Inspector General of Police.

The Tonk Pargana which is also the Head Quarters of the Tonk Raj Police, was Superintended by Pandit Dwarka Nath Padru throughout the year, his charge includes the Parganas of Aligarh and Nimbahera. Munshi Anwar-Ul-Haque Superintended the Police in Parganas Chhabra, Pirawa and Sironj. Excepting for six weeks in April and May, when he was on privilege leave, and again from September 20th, 1918, when he proceeded on three months leave without pay preparatory to retirement.

Re-organisation of the Force.

(2) The Re-organisation Scheme drawn up by Mr. Hollins in 1523 Fasli, is gradually being introduced there is however much to be done before the force attains that stage of perfection, which is so desirable. Funds and more funds are required for building up this department and for want of funds several of the more important changes to be carried out, under the proposed Scheme, are still held in abeyance. The pay and prospects of all grades of the Police have been substantially improved, a Police Lines is almost an established fact, but there remains, the building of Police Stations, suitable to the dignity and importance of Police work specially at the Head Quarters of each Pargana, and this work will sooner or later have to be taken in hand as funds permit and the importance of the Police Department is actually realized. There is certainly one section of the Police force which at present is not only an eye sore in every way but also a useless expence to the State and that is the mounted Police. The Syledar system has been found most defective and though my predecessor Mr. Hollins took one step forward to improve the lot of the sawars by regularising their pay and taking upon the department the feeding of the animals there is still much to be done in the matter of improving the general turn out of the Mounted Police. I have every hope with the assistance of His Highness of making the Mounted police some day what it should be, that is a useful body of horsemen. For the same reason there is much to be done to make the foot police into an efficient body of men— as they are at present, they are not prepared for emergencies they have hardly any arms, a very little ammunition, their methods of training are still defective, for want of suitable instructors, the men are not trained to shoot. It was always my predecessors intention to convert the Tonk Police into something worthy of name and I am equally interested in trying to build up from where he left off. I have asked for 100 Martin Henry Rifles and some 8,000 rounds and ammunition, and with the sympathy of His Highness and the assistance of our Political Agent I have every hope of getting these soon. I have prepared a firing range and have put up targets and immediately I get the arms I have asked for I will start the men on musketry training. The system of recruiting is also very defective. Recruits, when taking up police work look upon it, as something, which requires no training and the Circle Inspectors and Sub-Inspectors have hitherto never taken the trouble to eliminate this feeling from the minds of intending recruits—with the result that men are enlisted and forthwith posted to thanas—but not knowing anything of police duties, the result can only be which it has hitherto been, that is disastrous. Every attempt is being made to bring the newly enlisted men into Head Quarters for a short training and when this method is finally established, we can then look forward to an efficient Police force for Tonk State.

Climate Conditions.

(3) In 1324 Fasli—Excessive floods rendered thousands of persons homeless but in 1325 Fasli, it appears to have been just the other way—there was a scarcity of rainfall almost every where and what with war prices already prevailing, the conditions of the people was again rendered hard to sustain.

Criminal Conditions.

(4) Under these conditions an increase of crimes was to be anticipated, unfortunately there was a very marked increase in the number of dakaities committed which from one case in 1324 there were 14 in 1324 robberies also increased from 27 to 38 and burglaries went up from 295 to 488 the value of property stolen, went up from 32570/12/- to Rs. 1,33,775/10/6 and value of property recovered was only 20 per cent compared with 53 per cent in 1324 Fasli. The Parganas of Tonk, Aligarh Pirawa, Chhabra and Nimbahera showed no alarming increase of crime—Nimbahera with two dakaities one of which was referred to the Vakil of Mewar was decreed against the Udaipur State. This was a case where the Minas scrambled across the intervening hills and forcibly drove off 500 head of cattle grazing in Kotwali Police circle. The other case was committed in police circle Bari and having been challaned was pending trial at the close of the year. There were two cases of robbery also and both ended in conviction. In police circle Jhalra (Tonk) there were two dakaities both ended in conviction.

In Aligarh one case of burglary remained untraced. In police circle Mumana (Tonk) out of two cases of burglary one was expunged and the other ended in conviction. A case of robbery in Chhan (Aligarh) also remained untraced. None of the above cases call for any comment.

In the second range (Chhabra, Pirawa and Sironj) things were very different, dakaities and robberies by armed gangs of outlaws was the order of the day and the police appeared to have been incapable of dealing with these dakaits. There was nothing in particular doing in Chhabra and Pirawa but what was lacking in other Parganas was made up for by Sironj alone. Police circles Dipna khara, Syelpur and Apandyur seemed to have been the favourite haunts of the dakaits who used to come across from Gwalior territory and raid villages at leisure. Police circles Pipalya Lateri, Kotwali and Tonkra also had their attention. None of these cases appear to have been worked out except one which was challaned in December 1917 and is still pending trial. In this case the culprits were important dakaits and it is to be regretted that failure to dispose of criminal cases in law courts to this extent is permitted by the State Council. I have already referred this case to the State Council. I have already given at length the details of the more important cases of dakaities committed in Pargana Sironj in a report submitted to the Private Secretary to His Highness and to the State Council in my letter Nos 124 dated 11.12.18 and 125 dated 11.12.18 respectively, and I have also forwarded a further detailed continuation report on the Sironj dakaities on 21st December 1918. It is unnecessary therefore for me to report the same cases in this report, and thereby make this report unnecessary lengthy. I must however point out that the Eastern portion of Sironj Pargana is much too sparingly policed and the country is absolutely free for raiders from Gwalior and Bhopal to enter Sironj unmolested.

the building of two extra police stations and a couple of Out Posts must be considered immediately, and I will decide this when I go to Sironj very shortly, as I have already mentioned this necessity to His Highness.

As I am only reporting on police work for 1325 Fasli I need not delate on the recent capture of dakaita in 1326 Fasli (December 1918) but these dakaita raids have clearly established a very strong case for the better arming of the police force. It will also sooner or later have to be considered whether or not a third Superintendent of Police should be appointed with head quarters at Nimbahera so as to reduce the ranges of each of the two Superintendents who are at present unable to devote that amount of attention which is so essential for efficient police work- I will report separately about this to His Highness for favourable consideration.

Cases Pending trial

(5) There were 75 cases pending trial at the close of 1325, as compared with 57 in 1324, it will be seen that instead of matters improving they are going from bad to worse- it is well known that the facts of a case are always freshest in the memories of witnesses when the case is immediately heard but when cases are postponed sine-die, it is a very good example of court offices defecting ends of justice, which the police are required by law to preserve.

Investigations

(6) 1082 cases were investigated in 1325 Fasli as compared with 988 in 1324 it shows that the police are beginning to realize their responsibilities towards the public and are paying more attention to crime committed in their various circles.

Prosecutions

(7) Out of 1082 cases investigated 387 were challaned as compared with 469 in 1924, 273 were convicted, 44 acquitted and discharged and 214 expunged. There were not so many acquittals this year (77 to 44) which shows that the cases are better prepared before they are sent into court. On the other hand the cases expunged have greatly increased (181 to 214) which might show that the people still look upon the police as a medium for seeking revenge against their enemies or for other reasons. Before a case is sent up by the police for expunction the Superintendents should carefully look into the reasons, as it very often happens that the police on very flimsy grounds make a case out to be false just to evade a proper investigation.

Murders.

(8) There were five cases of murder as compared with four last year. One of these was a case of child murder for the sake of ornaments at Nimbahera. One Kallu Teli was suspected but there was not sufficient evidence to send him up for trial. In another case at Chhabra the accused shot a woman because she would not give into his improper proposals, the case was sent up for trial and he was sentenced to death. One other case was pending trial at the close of the year and two other cases are pending investigations with the police. One case which occurred last year in which the accused are absconding, they brought a woman from Delhi and murdered her near Nazarbagh. Evidence under section 512 I.P.C. has already been recorded but the accused are still at large.

Attempted Murder.

(9) There were such two cases during the year. In one case in Police

(12)

Station Baroni two men had an altercation over a girl and one of the men threatened the life of the other by pointing a gun at him but nothing more was done and there was not sufficient evidence to challan the case. The details of the second case are not available.

Culpable Homicide.

(10) There were only two new cases of Culpable Homicide not amounting to murder and one case was pending from last year. One of the two new cases occurred at P.S. Jepla (Chhabra) in this case the accused and deceased had a quarrel and the accused struck deceased with a Khodaler which caused his death. The accused was sentenced to five years rigorous imprisonment. The second case occurred at Chhabra in this Ismail Chaprasi was murdered in the jungle while tying a bullock for purposes of Shikar. The accused was challaned and the case is still pending in the Sessions. In the third case in P.S. Bari a man named Raja Ram was murdered, there were three accused in this case and they were all sentenced to ten years rigorous imprisonment each by the court of session.

Grievous hurt

(11) During the year there were 20 Grievous hurt reported, of these 20 were investigated 12 were challaned as true cases, 8 were convicted, 3 acquitted and one was not challaned for want of sufficient evidence. Six were expunged and two were pending trial at the close of the year.

Rape.

(12) Cases of committing rape went up from 3 in 1324 to 6 in 1325

Fasli- of the three were expunged as untrue two were convicted and discharged.

Unnatural Offence.

(13) Cases of sodomy also went up from 4 in 1324 to 9 in 1325, one was convicted, two discharged, and four expunged one case was pending investigation and one was pending trial at the close of the year. This pernicious habit of having carnal intercourse against the laws of nature requires stamping out and I would strongly recommend that extreme penalties be imposed by trying magistrates when such cases are proved beyond a doubt.

Dakaiti Robbery.

(14) I have already commented on these two classes of crime under para 5 and I have already forwarded special reports on the out break of dakaiti and robbery to His Highness and to State Council, I am not therefore reporting the occurrence of these cases in this report. It will suffice if I say, that now that Baba the leader of the garg of dakaitis and five others have been accounted for by the Sironj Police, there ought to be greater tranquility in that Pargana in public.

House breaking.

(15) There were 488 cases of burglary during the year- of these 394 were investigated- 207 removed undetected- out of 96 cases challaned 81 were convicted 7 discharged and 8 cases were pending trial at the end of the year Sixteen cases were Pending investigation with the Police and 75 were expunged- The most feasible explanation for the increase in the number of cases of burglaries is famine conditions, war prices, and an out-break of influenza, which made it necessary for thousands of persons to have their homes and property almost entirely unprotected. The Police were very badly attacked with Influenza and so it was impossible to expect very much help from them just at that critical time.

Cattle theft.

(16) There were 21 cases pending from last year and 220 new cases- of this number 184 cases occurred in Range second particularly in Sironj Pargana. There is a decided increase under this head as compared with last year, 230 cases were investigated of which 22 were expunged as false- out of 60 cases challaned 36 were convicted 9 discharged and 22 cases were pending trial- there were 20 cases pending investigation by Police and 128 remained undetected.

Ordinary theft,

(17) Out Of 290 cases of theft 52 were expunged as untrue, 110 cases were challaned 91 cases were convicted 11 were discharged and 8 were pending trial at the close of the year. There were also five cases pending police investigation- leaving 129 cases not traced.

Miscellaneous cases.

(18) Under this head are included ten cases under section 109 I.P.C. all of which ended in conviction, I find that sufficient use is not made of the prevential sections of the Criminal Procedure Code. Suprintendents and Circle Inspectors should see to this when touring in their respective circles and ranges.

There were altogether 151 cases and after dedecting ten cases under section 109 I.P.C. there are 141 cases to be explored- of these 140 were investigated 81 were challaned there were 8 cases in which sufficient evidence was not forthcoming to warrant prosecutions 43 cases were convicted and 17 discharged. 25 cases were pending trial and six pending police investigation and 41 were expunged as false.

Persons arrested.

(19) Out of a total of 651 persons sent up for trial 421 were convicted 113 were discharged 75 were pending trial in the courts and 61 were pending police investigation. These figures compare favourably with the percentage of convictions as compared with last year. The number of persons discharged has however risen from 94 to 113 and the number of persons pending trial has also risen from 57 to 75.

Stolen property.

(20) I have already given these figures in para 5, the amount of property stolen is undoubtedly due to the out break of dakaitis and particularly to cattle raids by gangs of criminals from across the borders of neighbhuring states particularly by the Minas from Udaipur.

House breaking.

(21) Although there is some improvement in the discipline of the force there are several cases in evidence still of not only constables absenting themselves for months without leave but Sub-Inspectors and Inspectors do not hesitate to do the same. When leave is granted these officers deliberately overstay their leave.

When orders of transfer are issued they deliberately disobey or delay in obeying those orders and whenever it chooses them they leave their duties and visit their homes for several days on a holiday. I have already punished severely several such cases of breach of discipline and I will not hesitate to dismiss any officer who attempts to treat with contempt the authority of superior officers.

Buildings.

(22) The Police Lines, I hope will be complete within a very short time, The delay has been due to scarcity of labour on account of sickness all round materials have also been hard to get for the same reason as contractors and other suppliers had closed down their concerns.

Gradually and as funds permit suitable Kotwalis must take the place of the present tumbled down buildings- and later on the smaller thanas will also have to be renovated or replaced. I see the necessity of establishing two more police stations in Pargana Sironj, owing to the outbreak of serious crime, I have already mentioned this to His Highness and about this when I visit Sironj.

Mounted Police.

(23) It will be difficult to improve the mounted Police, until such time, as Syledari system is done away with and the horses at present in use are absolutely discarded. I fully realize the difficulty of doing away with a system in force by tradition but this could be got over by transferring from the police the present horses together with their Syledars and if necessary with their Bargirs to the State Risala (cavalry) and leaving it entirely to the Police to purchase their own horses from their own funds and having their own whole time sawars- I will and appeal to His Highness for further sympathy with the police in this matter, not withstanding the liberality His Highness has already shown us in every way.

Chowkidars,

(24) The system of employing chowkidars also appears to be a traditional affair. These men draw no pay, but receive grant of land instead- they are held responsible for all thefts and are very often asked to make good the losses of complainants. However good this system may appear, it is not adoptable to police working, and were it not that it would mean an extra increase in the police budget, I would certainly recommend its abolition for the whole time chowkidars as in British territory. This will come up for consideration later on.

Personnel.

(25) Munshi Anwar-Ul Haque Superintendent of police Pargana Chhabra including Sironj and Pirawa has worked very well but having rendered yeoman service for many years both in British and Tonk Raj and having come to an age when rest is very necessary for preservation of good health, has with the good graces of His Highness secured employment under His Highness in another capacity and therefore severs connection with the police. I wish him a long life and happiness in his new surroundings. With the approval of His Highness the services of Munshi Nazir Ahmad an experienced and capable officer have been asked for from the U.P. Government to relieve M. Anwar-ul-Haque. Pandit Dwarka Nath Padru Superintendent of Police Tonk including the Parganas of Aligarh and Nimbahera has also worked excellently and his services have been acknowledged by His Highness by a substantial increase of pay. Amongst other officers who are said to have done good work as reported by the Superintendents are:—

Range 1	Inspector Ali Hussain Khan Nimbahera
	Sub-Inspector Mohammad Mustafa
	Sub-Inspector Mohammad Sha Khan Nimbahera
	Sub-Inspector Mohammad Ali Khan Peshkar
Range 11	Inspector Syed Ayub Ali Chhabra
	Officiating Inspector Wali-ulla-khan Sironj
	Sub-Inspector Mohammad Din Khan Nenwas
	Sub-Inspector Abdul Rehman khan Tonkra

I must also add the name of officiating Superintendent M. Niamat-ulla-khan who has been holding charge of the Chhabra range in the absence of M. Anwar-ul-Haque. He appears intelligent and competent and shows interest in his work.

In my office, I am sure, I would be voicing Mr. Hollins wishes by saying that I appreciate the good work done by Badu Darbari Lal Head Clerk, Babu Murli Mohan accountant and Dwarka Pershad Assistant Accountant.

Criminal Justice

4. The total number of Criminal cases filed during the year under reference was 1590 against 1619 involving 2923 persons against 3237 persons

Civil Justice.

8. The number of original Civil suits filed during the year was 1966 against 2256 for the last year showing a decrease of 290. Out of the total number of suits instituted 1750 were decided against 2049 for the past year leaving 216 cases undisposed of against 207 for the previous year. The civil Department worked satisfactorily.

Execution of Decrees.

9. 1061 applications were filed during the year under review. These together with the balance of the previous year swelled the number to 1359 of the value of Rs. 1,29,794/9/1 against 1616 of the value of 1,35,455/11/10 of the previous year.

Of these 1086 against 1318 of the last year were satisfied showing a decrease of 232 leaving 273 applications undisposed of at the end of the year against 298 for the previous year.

Decrees to the value of Rs. 90,107/7/0 against Rs. 99,181/0/10 for the previous year were satisfied during the year under report. The decrease in the amount of the value of the aforesaid Decrees is due to scarcity and epidemic diseases.

Appealate Court.

10. Out of 188 appeals filed in civil suits orders were confirmed in 83 reversed in 47, amended in 8, and remanded for further enquiry in 13 and compromised in 8 leaving 29 appeals undisposed of at the end of the year.

for the past year showing a decrease of 29 cases and 314 persons involved in comparison with the respective figures for the previous year.

The number of persons remaining under trial at the end of the year was 248 against 251 for the last year. Criminal Justice was administered satisfactorily during the year

Criminal Appeal.

5. The total number of appeals during the year was 279 showing an increase of 38 compared with the figures of the previous year. Sentences were confirmed in 167, modified in 21 quashed in 37, referred in 2 and remanded for further enquiry in 21 leaving 31 cases undisposed of at the end of the year. The working of the Appellate Court was satisfactory.

Council.

6. Out of 28 appeals filed sentences were confirmed in 17, reversed in 8, remanded for further inquiry in two leaving one case undisposed of at the end of the year under report.

(Note) In addition to the aforesaid appeals 30 cases were committed to the State Council for trial in the capacity of the sessions Court. Out of these 33 persons were sentenced in 19 cases 22 persons were acquitted in 8 cases, one case was referred, one was sent for further enquiry- thus leaving one case pending at the end of the year.

His Highness' Vernacular office
